

N-Power 2020 aptitude test timetable

According to statistics, over three hundred million Nigerians has registered for the ongoing youth empowerment program in which only four hundred thousand applicants are needed.

The federal government are putting in possible means to help the citizens especially the youth eradicate unemployment.

For those that have registered the Npower, keep all hand on deck as to when your own test will commence. This table can serve as a guide to the applicants.

All applicants should make sure they have an active email so as to know when message will be sent. People involved should always visit their email as well. Npower will either text through email or phone number. Some are use to using different type of number, make sure the number you registered with is always available to avoid stories that touch.
